All Others Concerned

Subject: ONLINE SEND-OFF AND FINAL BRIEFING FOR EDDIS SCHOOLS PRESS CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

1. In preparation for the upcoming EDDIS Schools Press Conference on October 17, 2026, this district shall conduct an Online Send-Off and Final Briefing on Monday, October 12, 2026 at 10:30 am, to provide the participating pupil-journalists and their coaches with final instructions, important reminders and words of encouragement before the competition.
2. This activity aims to ensure that all participants are adequately prepared, well-informed of the competition guidelines, and reminded of their responsibilities as representatives of the district. It also serves as an opportunity to strengthen their confidence, commitment, teamwork, and sportsmanship as they prepare to compete.
3. In this connection, all concerned school heads are requested to gather their respective participating pupil-journalists and coaches in one designated venue within the school premises to facilitate their simultaneous participation in the online activity. School heads shall ensure the availability of a stable internet connection, appropriate devices, and other necessary arrangements to enable all participants to join the briefing without technical difficulties.
4. All coaches are expected to accompany and guide their respective pupil-journalists throughout the activity and ensure their active participation. They are likewise encouraged to take note of the final reminders and instructions.
5. The link to the online meeting, together with the specific schedule and other relevant details, shall be communicated to all concerned through the designated district communication channels.
6. This district recognizes the time, effort and dedication invested by our school heads, coaches, and student-journalists in preparing for this competition. May this final gathering further inspire everyone to give their best, uphold integrity and sportsmanship, and represent our district with pride and excellence.
7. For information, guidance and compliance.
